

Low Vision Rehabilitation

PATIENT EDUCATION

Low vision rehabilitation consists of the use of visual aids and adaptive devices in an attempt to treat disabilities in reading, writing and activities of daily living.

When a referral or appointment is made, the patient should be instructed to bring any items with which they require assistance, i.e. checkbook, needle point, etc. They should also bring any visual aid items they are currently using or have used in the past.